Gentlemen:

Enclosed is a coin dated 1781, which in all probability was a Colonial coin. I am unable to identify it and send it to you for possible identification, and also to learn if your institution would be desirous of purchasing it.

I am not a collector or trader of coing.

Thanking you, I am,

Yours very truly,

A handwritten signature in cursive script, appearing to read "D. Meyer", with a long horizontal flourish extending to the right.

October 11, 1932.

Dear Sir:

Your North American token is a common piece. It was made in England and sent over in large quantities to Canada and the United States. As your piece is in very poor condition it is worth absolutely nothing.

Very truly yours,
